A preview of works by artist Krista Bard highlighted a reception honoring the Hope for Depression Research Foundation.

James Borynack hosted the event at the Wally Findlay Galleries on Feb. 19.

Bard is a Philadelphia-based artist whose collection "Sacred Words" is a series of metaphysical works on paper.

Hope Springs Eternal, a key piece in the collection, is dedicated to her mother, Hope, in whose honor the Hope for Depression Research Foundation was created. Bard is the sister of Palm Beach resident Audrey Gruss, founder and chairman of HDRF.

Guests included Nancy Corzine, Trish Donnelly, Diana and Liwyd Ecclestone, Susie and Ed Elson, Maria and Ray Floyd, Kate Ford and Frank Chopin, Audrey and Marty Gruss, Jessie and Rand Araskog, Annabelle and Denis Coleman, Anne Eisenhower, Lori and Bruce Gendelman, Gerald Goldsmith, Candy and Bill Hamm, Mai Harrison, John Mashek, Peggy and Alberto Mejia, Muffy and Donald Miller, John and Carole Moran, Thomas Quick, Joyce and Robert Sterling, Lis Waterman, Hilary and Wilbur Ross, Alyne Massy and Mario Nievera.
